our foundation is your foundation

The Gawler Health Foundation is a dynamic community oriented organisation, committed to providing YOU and YOUR family with excellent health care, at the Gawler Health Service (hospital). We fund projects and equipment that are essential to all of US.

We believe that the community is a vital part of what we do, and as such consider each and every one of you to be part of our organisation.

The Gawler Health Foundation Board of Management extends an invitation for your involvement by way of membership, friendship, donation, bequest or volunteering. See the back panel for more ideas on how you can help.

We are a deductible gift recipient organisation so every dollar donated is fully tax deductible.

All donations received for a specific purpose are 100% guaranteed for that purpose.

how are funds used?

The following have been made possible through donations and Foundation activities

- Day surgery facilities upgrade
- Neonatal foetal monitors
- Purchase of general equipment
- Upgrade to birthing suites
- Upgrade to palliative care facilities
- Staff development - specialist nursing training
- Community service activities and health care promotions
- Establishment of the Women's Health Centre

The Gawler Health Foundation maintains a priority list of funding possibilities in consultation with the Gawler Health Service.

become a friend or member

Friends and Members are vital to the ongoing success of the Gawler Health Foundation. You can actively participate in the future direction of the Foundation by becoming a member or simply support our work without the need to attend formal meetings by becoming a friend.

- Annual subscriptions are only $20 per person per year
- Receive regular updates
- Receive Invitations to events and networking opportunities
- Friends subscriptions are fully tax deductible
- Please note that Membership subscriptions are not tax deductible
- Members are entitled to vote at the AGM
- Members can be nominated to the Board of Management

friendship by periodic payments

One of the simplest ways to help our cause is to make regular tax deductible donations direct from your bank account.

This can be set up by yourself if you have online banking, or direct with your bank. We are happy to help co-ordinate this for you if required.

Donating in this way automatically carries friendship status.

Simply complete and return this application form, tick the box for periodic payment and we will be in contact with you to make arrangements, and issue you with a unique reference number.
